COMMUNITY PLAN

NULLAWIL, SEA LAKE, WATCHEM, WYCHEPROOF & DISTRICTS

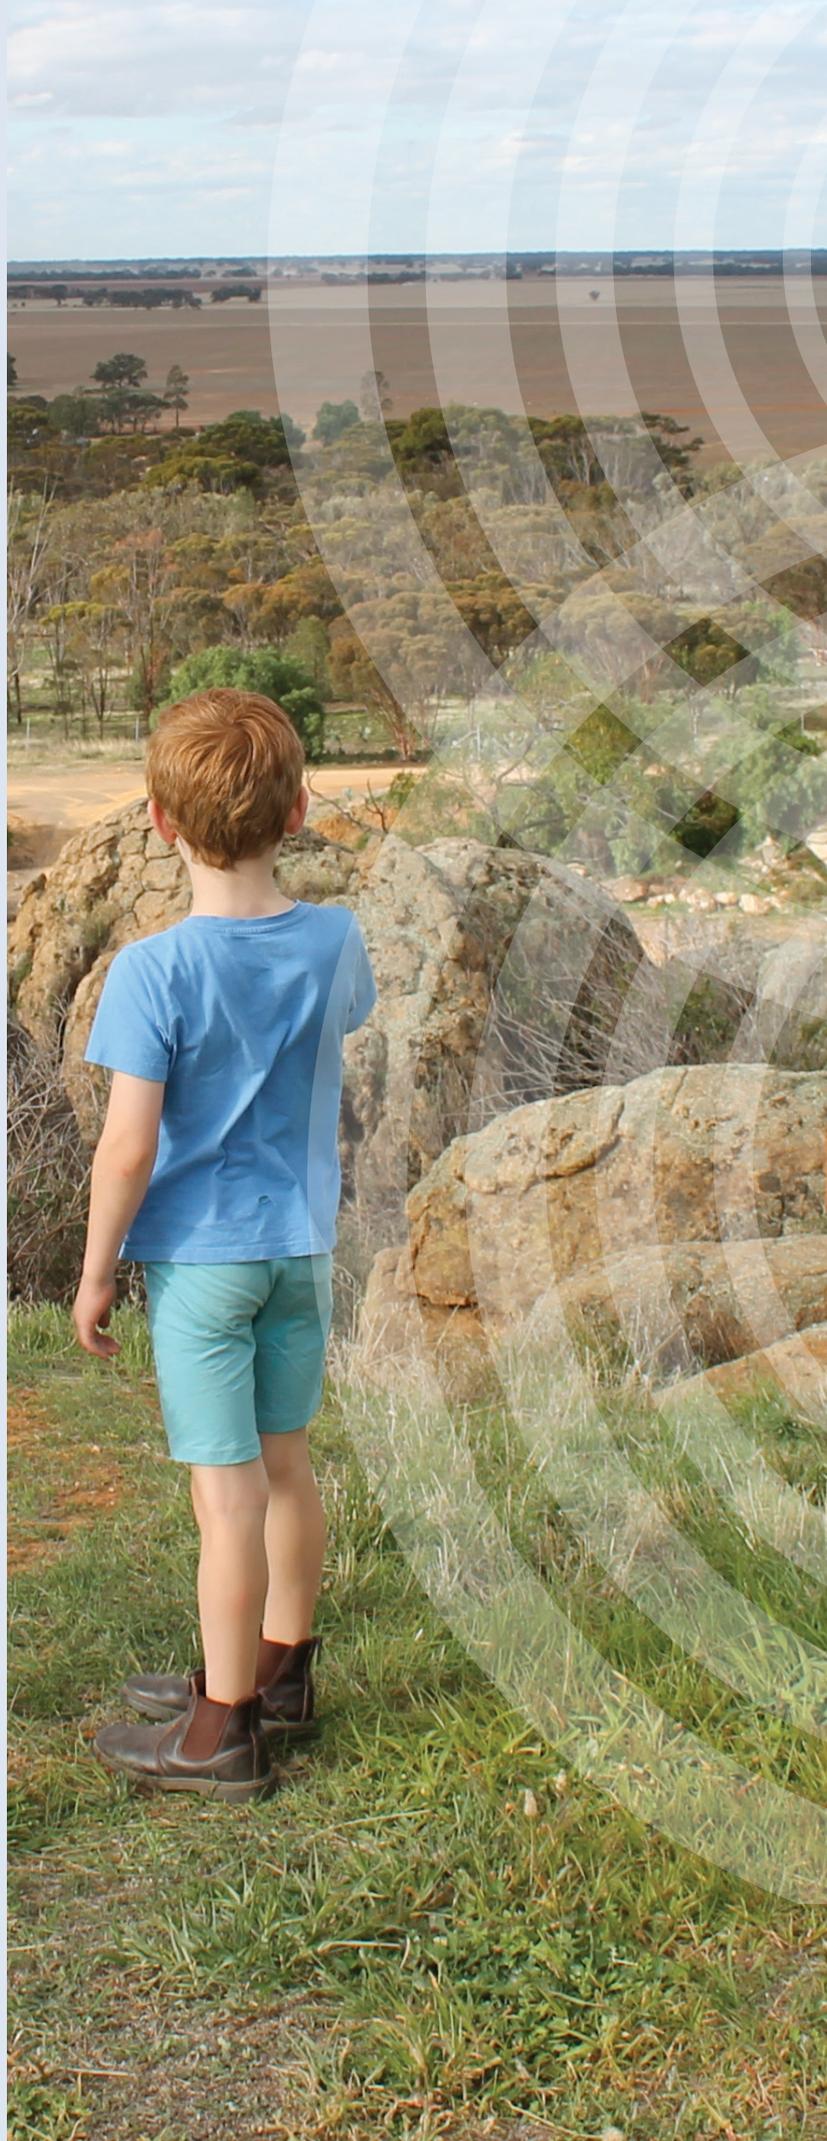

BULOKE SHIRE IS A GREAT PLACE TO LIVE.

Maybe it's the easy living in open spaces, surrounded by safe, caring communities and a friendly face around every corner. Perhaps it's the affordable living, the fresh air by the lake, at the parks or alongside fellow club members of a community group. It could be the infectious community spirit, the proud sense of belonging or the genuine concern for each other. Whatever the magic ingredient is, there is no denying it's the people of Buloke that make our communities so vibrant.

ABOUT BUILDING BULOKE 2030

Building Buloke 2030 is a long term strategic community plan. It describes the community's aspirations for the shire and captures ideas for achieving this vision. The project was funded by the Federal Government's Building Better Regions Fund which focuses on creating jobs, driving economic growth and building strong regional communities for the future.

The Building Buloke 2030 Community Plan (the Plan) outlines strategic directions for strengthening liveability under four key themes:

1. Our Built & Natural Environment
2. Our Community Wellbeing
3. Our Economy
4. Our Council & Community Leadership

These strategic directions were formed through the review of previous local level Community Plans in combination with new ideas from community discussions held throughout early 2018.

This integrated Community Plan brings together the common themes of the 10 individual community plans.

The Building Buloke 2030 Community Plan will assist in shaping the future of the Buloke Shire and enable a collective response to our challenges, aspirations and opportunities to deliver outcomes that benefit the whole community.

While Council has had a leading role in initiating and preparing the Building Buloke 2030 Community Plan, it is not wholly responsible for its implementation. Other partners, such as non-government organisations, community groups and Federal and State government agencies are also responsible for the delivery of actions within the Plan. Council recognises the vital role of partners to achieve positive social impact through key actions captured in this plan.

WHERE DOES THE PLAN FIT?

The Building Buloke 2030 Community Plan will inform Council's planning processes over the next three Council Planning phases up to 2030.

This Plan will strongly inform the direction of a range of key stakeholder organisations and groups that are connected to the Buloke Shire communities

OUR COMMUNITY

The Buloke Shire is located in the north west of Victoria between 210 and 360 kilometres from Melbourne.

The Buloke Shire is bounded by both the Mildura and Swan Hill Rural Councils in the north, Gannawarra and Loddon Shires in the east, Northern Grampians Shire in the south and Yarriambiack Shire in the west.

The Buloke Shire is a predominantly rural area. The main townships are Birchip, Charlton, Donald, Sea Lake and Wycheproof. The Shire also comprises the smaller townships of Berriwillock, Culgoa, Nandaly, Nullawil and Watchem. The Buloke Shire encompasses a total land area of 8,000 square kilometres and is approximately 140 kilometres long and 60 kilometres wide.

The two main highways servicing the Buloke Shire are the Calder Highway and the Sunraysia Highway. Both highways run north and south through the Shire. Land is used largely for agriculture, particularly grain (wheat, oats and barley) production and sheep grazing.

The Buloke Shire is named after the 'buloke' or 'bullock' tree, 'allosuarina luehmanni' which is common in the area and the feature of the Buloke Shire logo.

UNDERSTANDING DISADVANTAGE IN THE BULOKE LGA

Socio-Economic Indexes for Areas (SEIFA) provides summary measures derived from the Census to assess different aspects of socio-economic conditions by geographic area. There are four indexes to allow ranking of regions and areas for social and economic well-being in each region.

- 1 Index of Relative Socio-Economic Disadvantage (IRSD): The IRSD summarises variables that indicate relative disadvantage. A low score on this index indicates a high proportion of relatively disadvantaged people in an area.
- 2 Index of Relative Socio-Economic Advantage and Disadvantage (IRSAD): The IRSAD summarises variables that indicate either relative advantage or disadvantage.
- 3 Index of Economic Resources (IER): The IER summarises variables relating to the financial aspects of relative socio-economic advantage and disadvantage.
- 4 Index of Education and Occupation (IEO): The IEO summarises variables relating to the educational and occupational aspects of relative socio-economic advantage and disadvantage.

Each of these indexes summarises different aspects of the socio-economic conditions of people living in an area and each is based upon a different set of social and economic information from the Census.

For Buloke there is little change in 'scores' across the four indexes between the 2011 and 2016 Census periods.

Based on 2011 Index of Relative Socio-Economic Disadvantage (IRSD) figures the Buloke LGA was the 22nd most disadvantaged LGA of 79 LGAs in Victoria moving to be the 24th most disadvantaged LGA based on the SEIFA measure of Index of Relative Socio-Economic Disadvantage in 2016.

Applying the Index of Relative Socio-Economic Advantage and Disadvantage (IRSAD) the Buloke LGA ranked as the 22nd most disadvantaged LGA in Victoria in 2011. This rank increased slightly to 23rd for the 2016 IRSAD data.

There is an increasing difference between the minimum and maximum scores for the Statistical Areas highlighting that the 'gap' between the disadvantaged and the remainder of the community increased between the 2011 and 2016 Census reporting periods for all Indexes with the exception of the Index of Education and Occupation (IEO). This reflects a nationwide trend.

FUTURE TRENDS

Looking towards 2030 communities across the Buloke Shire identified a number of future challenges and trends that they felt were important to plan for:

COMMUNITY

The 2016 Census highlighted that the median age in Buloke Shire has increased to 51 years, up from 48 years in the previous Census (2011). By comparison, the Victorian median age is 37 years. Consultation revealed a number of concerns for Buloke Shire's ageing communities such as: isolation, suitable step-down housing, transport to specialist appointments, access to place-based health services, suitable aged care services and facilities and gopher friendly communities.

"Footpaths and kerbing need improvement-this is important with ageing population and increase of gopher use."

DECLINING POPULATION

Between the 2011 and 2016 Census reporting periods the total population of the Buloke Local Government Area (LGA) has declined by 183 persons. Victoria in Future population projections suggest a trend of a 1% decline per Census period leading up to 2030. During Buloke 2030 consultations community members highlighted their concerns about continued population decline and its associated challenges, including: school closures, viability of small business, decline in place-based health and wellbeing services, access to employment opportunities, access to volunteers and having the numbers required to field sports teams.

"We are peddling as hard as we can."

"Our main street is empty; the history is going."

"Corporation farms means families are leaving, farms are bigger and buying lots of things in bulk outside of the town."

SERVICES

Buloke communities highlighted the change in services they have experienced over the past several decades included amongst these were bank, school, store and pub closures. Consultation revealed the heightened concern about future access to services locally, particularly with the projected population decline for the Shire. Residents particularly revealed their unease about future access to place-based health and wellbeing services in the Buloke Shire. Without adequate place-based health and wellbeing services residents felt it would be extremely difficult to attract new residents to the area and there is a risk that existing residents may move to larger centres where these services are readily available.

The loss of community stores, pubs and other small business is a major concern for a number of small towns across the Shire. These services support social connections and the economy and are essential for the liveability of smaller towns.

"Schools, government and banks have disappeared or gotten smaller."

"We know we are small and likely the first to go, but we are nothing without our hospital, especially with our ageing population."

LARGER FARMS

Consultation revealed that the traditional family farm is growing in size with residents noting a number of potential challenges including larger machinery moving on local roads, less farming families 'on the land' and corporate agriculture 'buying-in' goods and services from outside the area. For the latter two in particular the ramifications of further declining population is particularly significant, this was compounded when the loss was of 'long-time locals' – with such instances noted as especially difficult.

CLIMATE CHANGE

The Buloke Shire encompasses a total land area of 8,000 square kilometres, much of which is used for agriculture. Agriculture is the main economic driver in Buloke and the community fears that climate change presents risks for both farms and broader communities such as: extreme weather and heat, storms, bushfires, decrease in farming viability and subsequent economy and community physical and mental health. With the physical health of older community members a particular concern during heatwaves.

Consultation revealed community interest for both enhanced support for farmers and in focussing on actions that could reduce Buloke Shire's impact on climate change such as farming innovation, recycling, water use, solar etc.

"We are the centre for agriculture in the Mallee."

INCREASED RELIANCE ON TECHNOLOGY

Technology is essential in the Buloke Shire and consultation revealed that it is required not only for day to day living but also for business, agriculture, social and education purposes. The speed of technological change presents challenges for rural communities. Consultation revealed a number of concerns about current telecommunication systems: mobile phone black spots, lack of access to NBN, slow internet speeds, internet dropping out, boosters required to access internet signals, students not being able to access internet for their studies and cost of internet access. Reliable, efficient and affordable mobile phone and internet services are paramount for the future liveability of Buloke Shire.

"Internet access is a challenge out of town, consistency of service is poor and as more people get connected it is getting worse."

"The internet is frustratingly slow-this is a big negative."

DISADVANTAGE

2016 Census figures highlight an increase in the number of unemployed people residing in the Buloke Shire compared to 2011. Socio-Economic Indexes for Areas (SEIFA) IRSAD data ranks the Buloke Shire as the 23rd most disadvantaged local government area in the Victoria. In addition, SEIFA emphasises the growing gap in the Buloke Shire between the disadvantaged and the advantaged.

Average weekly rental figures from 2016 census data highlights the rental affordability of the area which could draw people with limited resources. Consultation revealed community concern around inclusion of residents from varying socio-economic backgrounds, the high number of lone person households across the Shire and the challenges of access to services for those experiencing vulnerability and or disadvantage.

"If you don't have a car it can be isolating, this is compounded if you have medical needs."

"A lot of people here are on welfare, if we can do our best we can help them to stay here."

MONITORING AND REVIEWING BUILDING BULOKE 2030

As we move towards 2030, we will need to review how we're working towards our vision and goals and continue to check that the priorities remain relevant to community. We will do this by reviewing the actions of the Plan annually and providing regular progress reports to the community via forum groups, newsletters, print and social media.
